

Event Program

15 September 2019: Odour Special Interest Group

Time	Topic	Speaker
8.30	Registration
9.00-9.15	Introductions and greetings, including discussion of workshop aims.
9.15-10.00	Background to odour surveys in New Zealand and recent developments with methodology.	Roger Cudmore
10.00-10.15	Odour Surveys Case Study	Rob Van de Munckhof
10.15-10.30	Second New Zealand based speaker.	To be confirmed
10.30-11.00	Morning Tea
11.00-11.15	Update on field odour survey workshop held in Brisbane and development of guidance.	Geordie Galvin and Andrew Balch
11.15-12.30	Session 1 - Discussion of survey possible approaches and development of decision tree including what odour intensity scales to use
12.30-1.30	Lunch
1.30-2.30	Session 2 - Discussion of survey possible approaches and development of decision tree including what odour intensity scales to use
2.30-2.45	Afternoon Tea
2.45-5.00	Panel session – Developments and upcoming challenges in odour measurement and assessment. This session will be moderated by Geordie and Andrew, and our panel, made up of well known odour practitioners will answer questions from the audience and lead a discussion on where odour assessment and measurement is headed and where OSIG needs to be directing its future efforts.
5.00 pm	Close	